

The Dead Letter

A love triangle turns deadly in the first full-length detective novel by an American author Published a decade prior to Anna Katharine Greens The Leavenworth Case (1878), The Dead Letter concerns the murder of Henry Moreland, whose body is found just a few steps from the home of John Argyll, Esq. Moreland was engaged to Argylls daughter, Eleanor, and suspicion soon falls upon the lawyers protege, Richard Redfield. Desperate to clear his name, Redfield seeks the help of Mr. Burton, a famous New York City detectivebut the case has more twists and turns than either of the two men could possibly imagine. Set against the political turmoil of the Reconstruction Era, The Dead Letter is a fascinating historical document, a pioneering work of genre fiction, and a mystery with a cleverly satisfying conclusion. This ebook has been professionally proofread to ensure accuracy and readability on all devices.
