

Jacob Hamblin: His Life in His Own Words UNABRIDGED - Foreword by Richard Lloyd Dewey

This is the best of all Jacob Hamblin books -- his UNABRIDGED autobiography in clean, modern, easy-to-read type.. In order to make it THE MOST READABLE EDITION IN PRINT, a staff of editors spent months meticulously re-typesetting the work to make it FREE FROM O.C.R.AND OTHER ERRORS found in most other versions. Thus, Hamblins FULL NARRATIVE is now easier than ever for readers to enjoy. Who was Jacob Hamblin? He was Americas bravest adventurer among Native Americans -- and never carried a gun, SHOWING HIS FAITH IN THE NATIVE AMERICANS AND TO GOD THAT HE WOULD NOT BE HARMED. In his amazing adventures he encountered apparent Divine intervention at every turn, trying to keep the peace between Indians and settlers. Like gun-toting super-lawman Porter Rockwell, Jacob Hamblin was one of those incredibly rare souls who are absolutely fearless. No less exciting than Porters account, Jacob reveals his conversion to the Latter-day Saint faith, then his adventures among certain hostile Indians with life-and-death trials of his faith that keep the reader spellbound. Venturing single-handedly into hostile territory, Hamblin takes the reader into hearts of darkness and hearts of light. THIS FULL EDITION, FREE FROM PROBLEMS OF OTHER VERSIONS, makes his narrative worth every moment in reliving his experience.
