

The Land Of Nightingales

In 1919 Phoebe Maynard found the old journal in the attic. It reminded her of her childhood in Spain and of her fathers distress whenever she spoke of that country. Phoebe and her sister Lydia had never understood why the land of nightingales was such an emotive subject within the family, but when their father died it became clear. His will revealed that they had a half-brother - Juan Rodriguez. When Holly, Phoebes niece by marriage, came onto the scene the two worlds met as Holly and Juan found themselves drawn into the turbulence of the Spanish Civil War. A marvellous panoramic book...
